Board Members,

Participants,
Good Morning,

It gives me great pleasure to address you this morning.

Wishing a warm welcome to you all. Thank you for attending our Silver Lining Formation workshop and for being part of one of our most impactful projects brought to you by UN Youth Seychelles.

As a youth-led organisation our NGO is set to bring you vibrant projects tailored to youth culture, interest, vibes and way of learning. Today we strive to enlighten your paths with a wealth of information aimed to equip you in carving your silver lining. This project aims to promote holistic development and build resilience through the 8 dimensions of life/ wellbeing. Hence, I call on you to make the most of your time with us.

In recent years we have witnessed a significant change in participants of the silver lining project when it comes to the empowerment and change of mindset in the youth. That is what we seek at the end of this 2 days' workshop. We will be presenting two awards one for the Best Participant who engages more in the sessions and the other one is for the Participant who displays the most growth over the days.

For those who are here with us today, I welcome you to participate and engage as much as possible, as these kinds of opportunity is where we become more self-aware and build confidence.

This workshop would not have been possible if it was not for the culmination of an enormous collective effort by the UNYS Seychelles team, our presenters and the national grants committee. We are thankful for the support and contributions.

I want Thank all UNYS members for the continuous dedications, hard work and to ensure that this 2 day workshop is a success.

Thank you for all those who is participating on these 2 day workshop because without your engagement and signing up to this workshop there would not have been a workshop in the first place.

Please give a round of applause to yourself making this first step to greatness.
